The Railway Meeting.

The Railway Meeting on Saturday night was a perfect success. All effort was made to defeat the object of the meeting, but it was all without avail. After the first resolution was proposed Dr. Helmcken took the stand in opposition to it. He attempted to prove that the words "seaboard" and "Pacific" did not mean the Straits of Fuca or Gulf of Georgia, and advised the meeting to accept the terms of Confederation as they were. Mr. Carey also advocated accepting the terms as they were. Mr. Robson concurred with Mr. Carey and opposed the resolution, which was the same that he had voted for at the preliminary meeting. But neither of the speeches delivered by these gentlemen seemed to have the slightest effect on the meeting so far as influencing it to reject the first resolution; for when it was put to the meeting it was adopted unanimously except three or four dissenters; and the announcement from the Chair that it was carried was received by three deafening cheers. The next resolution proposed by Dr. Tolmie to name Esquimalt as the Terminus was also opposed by Dr. Helmcken and others. It too was carried almost unanimously. The concluding portion of the resolution urging that the terminus be named in the Terms excited some indignant and excited remarks from the Colonist staff; but the effort was perfectly futile. The meeting was determined and united on one thing; and that was that the Terms of Confederation endangered the stability of Victoria; that it was an absolute necessity that the Terms of Confederation should be amended so as to make it certain that Victoria and Esquimalt should be made a Terminus of the Trans-Continental Railway. The meeting having inaugurated the terminus question, let no candidate receive a vote unless he pledges himself squarely to vote for the terminus as a condition of Confederation. Without that nothing. The electors must not deceive themselves. No terminus here is ruin to Victoria. No terminus here means that Victoria will cease to be the Chief commercial city of British Columbia.

MAGIC SOAP.

Directions for Using Robinson's Magic Soap for doing a Large Family Washing in Two Hours, of Five or Six Dozen Pieces.

1. Cut up fine a bar of the Soap, and put one-half of it into your boiler with sufficient water to cover well your white clothes to be washed, and let the Soap dissolve; then put your clothes in, stirring them, and let them just come to a boil; then pour out clothes and water into a tub and let them soak twenty or thirty minutes, stirring them round in the tub occasionally to loosen the dirt. Such articles as collars, wristbands or any article very dirty, should be rubbed through the hands a little while soaking in order to thoroughly loosen the dirt before boiling.

2. While your clothes are soaking put the other half of your cut Soap into your boiler, with sufficient clean water to boil, and let it be heating. After your clothes have soaked wring them out well and put into your boiling water, and let boil from 5 to 10 minutes; then rinse, blue and hang out to dry. If the above directions are followed, we will guarantee your clothes clean and white.

3. For your colored and woollen clothes use the same water you soaked and boil your white clothes with, only heating it up again, and pour it over your colored and woollen clothes, and let soak the same as your white clothes, also rubbing them through your hands while soaking, if very dirty. Then rinse in clear water, warm as your hands will bear, and you will thus accomplish a large washing in two hours.

By cutting up a bar of this Soap into two gallons water, and let boil until thoroughly dissolved, and then leave to cool, you will have two gallons of beautiful SOFT SOAP, as good as Common Soap for general house purposes.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF VICTORIA.

GENTLEMEN:—An idea of duty prompts me on this occasion to solicit a continuance of your trust.

The proposition to make British Columbia in future an integral portion of the Dominion of Canada has been reduced to a series of definite "Terms of Union." Upon the electors now rests the grave responsibility of determing whether those terms are suitable, sufficient, and calculated to promote the progress and prosperity of British Columbia hereafter, and whether they will become partners in the weal or woe of Canada, and if the answer be in the affirmative, of leading her to and becoming part of her, Destiny and Future.

If the choice of a Tariff be, as at present, a mere election either of that of Canada or that of British Columbia as either exists, I must, in order to coincide with you, choose that of Canada; but, at the same time, I fear that when the Canadian Tariff and Excise Law are put in force much injury will accrue there from to our farming, brewing and other producing interests. The inducements to settle upon, clear and cultivate our lands will, at least, be diminished, and the benefits arising from the Union will neither be so great nor so pure as they ought and might be made, and probably are by many expected to be.

There may, however, be even yet an atom of hope that before the terms of Union are disposed of, certain amendments of the Tariff will be allowed; in that case I ask for discretionary power to use that or other concession for the purpose of preventing, as far as possible, the injury likely to accrue to our farming and some industrial interests from the forthcoming revolution, and of making the projected public works the means of building up and strengthening our own beautiful country and the Dominion, instead of serving that purpose for a jealous rival. No alteration of the terms will be required for this purpose. I need scarcely add that the prosperity of Victoria and that of our producing interests are intimately connected and in some measure dependent upon each other.

The substitution of a purely representative and responsible for the present form of Government may be regarded as one of the consequences of Confederation.

The determination of the site for the Terminus of the Canadian Pacific Railroad must depend very much upon the objects the Canadian Government have in view in undertaking such a gigantic work; the cost and practicability of the various routes, the advantages of each for the purpose required. It is probable that the main object may be the acquisition of an easy, short and expeditious route to China and the East through British Territory, for the purpose, among others, of British and European commerce; Secondly, for domestic uses, such as the settlement of the country, rapidity of communication, defence and various others. For the purposes of commerce the Railway must have its terminus at some good seaport convenient to the Pacific Ocean and superior to that of its rival—the North Pacific Railway. Vancouver Island possesses such sea ports and is in reality the "seaboard of British Columbia." The precise locality of the Terminus, however, must in reality be settled after the scientific survey shall have been completed. The subject is of much importance and naturally causes considerable interest and concern; but it is hoped the friends of Union will take care to see Vancouver Island protected in this particular and thus prevent it becoming a cause of hostility or hindrance to Confederation.

It is but natural that unavoidable, impending and radical organic changes, the effect of which upon units cannot be clearly forseen, should create in many a feeling of dread and distrust of the future. That the effect of Confederation will be advantageous to some persons, places and interests, and inimical and confusing to others, is more than probable; but taking the country generally, its present condition and Terms of Union combined, simultaneously into consideration, Union seems calculated to be beneficial to the country, considered as a whole, if not immediately, at least in the not distant future.

Hoping to retain your confidence and support, believe me yours, &c., oc 29 J. S. HELMCKEN.

To the Electors of the District of Victoria City.

GENTLEMEN,—At the request of a large number of electors I offer myself as one of your representatives in the next Legislative Council, where our political destiny is to be chosen. At such a crisis in our history, it is specially important that you should elect members who will faithfully and fearlessly represent your wishes. The following is a brief outline of the views which I am prepared to advocate.

Confederation with the Dominion of Canada is a policy upon which we all agree; and I am in favor of accepting the terms, as a whole, as agreed upon by our delegates with the Dominion Government.

I recommend the immediate acceptance of the Canadian Tariff, believing it to be materially in the interests of the people of the Colony.

If it should be found practicable to make Victoria the terminus of the Railway, I would use every effort to secure that desirable end and, if necessary, advocate a special concession for the purpose.

Responsible Government is the only system which can satisfy a free people; and I shall support its immediate adoption.

As to the very important and interesting question of education, I believe it to be the duty, as well as the interest of the State to provide for the education of its children, and that non-sectarian schools adequate to the purpose ought to be established and maintained, and an efficient staff of teachers paid, by the Government out of the general revenue of the country.

A tax upon unimproved lands shall have my warmest support.

A supply of wholesome water for the city is urgently required; and I will support any practical measure to secure it.

My interests are identical with yours. I earnestly desire to see this city, and the magnificent country of which it is the capital, prosperous and progressive; and if you elect me as one of your members, I will use my best exertions to secure that result.

I intend to take an early opportunity of personally explaining to you my political views, and am, gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,
J. W. CAREY.

To the Electors of the City of Victoria.

GENTLEMEN:—

At the request of many friends I beg to offer myself as a Candidate for your Suffrages as one of the Representatives in the next Council.

On the most important question of the day—Confederation—We cannot but agree. I think the Terms as negotiated with the Dominion Government are of a most liberal character; but at the same time, I intend to use every available effort, if an opportunity should present itself towards bringing the Terminus of the Canadian Pacific Railway as near the Capital of British Columbia as may be practicable.

The Government Grants for the purpose of non sectarian Education should be largely increased; and the system placed on a more substantial and liberal basis.

Increased representation and Responsible Government I will strenously advocate.

I am of opinion that the Canadian Tariff should be at once accepted as being the means of lightening individual Taxation and tending to increase our commerce.

In Conclusion I may add that whilst the general wants of the whole Colony will ever be my study—your peculiar requirements will have my special attention.

I have the honor to be gentlemen

The Railway Meeting.

On Saturday evening the St. Nicholas Hall was filled with a large and respectable assemblage of citizens. At 7:30 o'clock His Worship the Mayor took the Chair, and stated that the object of the meeting was to take into consideration the construction of a railway between Esquimalt and Nanaimo, to form part of the Trans Continental Railway. The preliminary meeting held a few days ago was of the opinion that a railway ought to be built to tap the trade of the overland road. The outlay of $3,000,000, on Vancouver Island, would not be of any consequence to the Canadian Government. Let us get hold of something. Suppose for a moment that a terminus was on the Mainland of British Columbia, every vessel coming would pass our door, and, if by some unforseen misfortune, the Island of San Juan should be ceded to the United States Government, and they should present a hostile attitude toward the Dominion of Canada, what position would the Government be placed in? The result to our trade and commerce would be that a vessel could not pass to Nanaimo, &c.; and by having a railway to Nanaimo, if the United States Government had 100,000 guns on San Juan Island they would not amount to anything. That is the position to take. England would never consent to the United States getting possession of property belonging to her. If the Terminus were at Burrard Inlet, steamers could run over to Nanaimo in two hours. If this country is left out in the cold, it will be fatal to our interests. It is necessary for the Dominion and Imperial Governments to build a railroad through the entire country, to strengthen the Dominion; at present it is held together by local interests. There is no harm in asking for the railroad to Nanaimo. There is no doubt in my mind but the Canadian Government will build the railway, if asked to do so. The time will arrive when all of us will feel an interest in protecting a free country.

Mr. DeCosmos was called to the platform, and proposed the following resolution:

"That, in the opinion of this meeting, a railroad ought to be constructed between Victoria and Nanaimo, as part of the Trans-Continental Railway."

Mr. DeCosmos spoke at some length, and in concluding, showed that Dr. Helmcken's views on the seaboard of British Columbia were erroneous.

Mr. James Fell came forward to second the resolution. He had been an opponent of Confederation and could not say he was even now a lover of it, but as everyone said we ought to have it he supposed he should have to go in for it. We are bound to have a railway through this extensive country within eight or ten years, and it may be advantageous to go into Confederation. Canada was as anxious to have us go in as we were to get in. Canada had even given us more than we asked for. It was for the people to say now whether they would accept the Terms or not, and if possible put in a stipulation to have a railroad built from Esquimalt to Nanaimo. Esquimalt was one of the finest harbors on the Pacific coast, and if this country was to be anything the railway must be brought to Esquimalt.

Hon. Dr. Helmcken said:—First. Then the Terms say "a railway from the Pacific towards the Rocky Mountains." Now, the word Pacific means the Pacific Ocean, in the same way that the Atlantic means the Atlantic Ocean. The Gulf of Georgia is not the Pacific Ocean—it is only the Gulf of Georgia, in the same way that the Irish Sea is not the Atlantic Ocean. How can a railway get from the Pacific Ocean to the Rocky Mountains? It must either go through or across Vancouver Island, or it may commence on the Mainland north of Vancouver Island, up to p. 54 40. There is no other way from the Pacific Ocean to the Rocky Mountains. Neither Burrard Inlet nor Esquimalt harbor are upon the Pacific Ocean; therefore, they do come within the meaning of the term "from the Pacific." I, therefore, maintain that the term is suitable to Vancouver Island, and that portion of the Mainland north of it. We must be determined and united upon that point. Now, take this in connection with the sentence, "to connect the seaboard of British Columbia with Canada." The seaboard of British Columbia here, can only mean that portion of British Columbia bordering on the Pacific. Here again, neither Burrard Inlet nor Esquimalt come in. The seaboard of British Columbia is, then, the coast of Vancouver Island on the Pacific, and that of the Mainland beyond that point. The terms "Pacific Ocean" and "seaboard of British Columbia," mean the same thing. The best harbors are upon the shores of Vancouver Island; there are none north of it suitable. Therefore, we must conclude that the railway will terminate upon Vancouver Island. We must be united as one man upon the terms "Pacific" and "seaboard of British Columbia." Any unprejudiced person reading that term must, I am certain, come to the same conclusion as to the meaning. I don't care whether the terminus is at Nootka or Barclay Sound, or anywhere else; provided, it be upon Vancouver Island. And here, I say, we must be determined to stand as one man, and hope that the friends of Confederation will protect us in that due, just and proper interpretation of the term. Once have the terminus on Vancouver Island and the rest will follow. A line can readily then be built from Victoria by Esquimalt to join that terminus, and then Victoria and Esquimalt will really be the terminus for all business purposes. If it cannot maintain that position then it cannot be helped. Any company would build the line for twenty miles on each side of the line, and be precious glad to get it, too; for it would take nearly the whole of Vancouver Island. With it, miles of coal fields, valuable lime, copper, iron, and all kinds of minerals. Burrard Inlet would be useless for commercial purposes—that is for China and the East; and it would be a swindle upon the Canadian Government to attempt to hide that fact.

Mr. J. W. Carey asked if the people were prepared to open up these Terms? If they were, the whole Terms fell to the ground, and three other delegates would have to be sent to Ottawa. There was a political trick behind this resolution. The people should not be misled. The Terms said a road must be built from the seaboard to the Rocky Mountains. Was Johnson Straits the sea? (Cheers.) Canada had given us more than we asked. Now, political demagogues want more. So long as the Terms were beneficial we ought to be satisfied with them. They are before us for ratification—not for amendment. If they are amended they fall to the ground. Don't be gulled by political demagogues. Now or never is the time to get union on good terms. Three million dollars would never deter Canada from building this road. The very last paragraph in the Terms is that the Canadians will accept you on these terms. Don't amend them; but accept the Terms as a whole. After a few other remarks in the same strain the speaker retired.

Mr. Nathan was called for and alluded to his inexperience as a public speaker, and added that he would use every exertion to bring the railway to Esquimalt; but he would not imperil Confederation. It had been said that Victoria would steadily decline without the Terminus. His answer was that half a loaf was better than no bread. No part of British Columbia could be benefitted without Victoria being benefitted; and even without the Terminus, Victoria would derive advantage from Confederation. He would do all he could to bring the Terminus here; but he could not endorse the No Terminus, No Confederation doctrine.

Mr. Robson said that the agitation at this time was very unfortunate and might be serious. Three of the previous speakers had handled the subject with much ability. He endorsed the remarks of Dr. Helmcken, who was in a position to know more of Canadian sentiment than anyone else. The doctor had decidedly the best of the seaboard part of the argument. The agitation was calculated to do no possible good, and might do harm. The resolution was an evidence of the weakness of the cause of the people of Vancouver Island—that they had doubts as to the practicability of bringing the railway to Victoria. The terminus cry had the effect of creating agitation in different localities on the Mainland. The Terms brought back were specially good—better than the Colony had any right to expect, or his hon. friend (Mr. DeCosmos) had ventured to propose. If the people of British Columbia should quarrel over the terms, the Canadian Government might recede from the bargain, and we might never get as good terms again. That Canada was so eager to get British Columbia was a mistake. Canada could well afford to wait until British Columbia came in on terms to suit the Dominion. Newfoundland and Prince Edward Island had rejected the terms they were offered, and they were now out in the cold. If we squabble over the terms, and the Canadian Government were released from their bargain, it would involve fresh negotiations and at least a year's delay. The man who said it was necessary to petition Canada to get the terminus at Esquimalt, occupied a position he would not like to occupy. The interests of the Dominion called for the Terminus to be fixed at the best port jutting furthest into the Pacific Ocean, and every Vancouver Islander would vote to make the Terminus at Esquimalt, if it were possible to do so. No doubts should be expressed as to the railway coming to the Island. One gentleman had said that if the railroad does not come to Esquimalt Victoria would become a fishing village. He believed that with the graving dock, semi-monthly steam communication with San Francisco, semi-weekly communication with the Sound, and the capital, Confederation would lift Victoria from a sickly, drooping thing to a prosperous and wealthy city.

Mr. C. B. Brown said capitalists were not going to build a road out of the direct line of trade. Did the Canadians think we were going to swallow down these terms. He would not vote for any man who would say that he would not vote for Esquimalt for the Terminus. If the road did not come to Esquimalt, Victoria would be as dead as a doornail.

The Mayor then put the resolution and ryder, which were carried unanimously.

Dr. Tolmie said that the question of the line of railway across the continent and to the ocean, will be one for competent civil engineers to decide; but there is a place which has been already thoroughly surveyed, and the position of which on the map is well known; I mean Esquimalt harbor; the desirability of which, as the Pacific Terminus is beyond question. Everything, as regards our own interests, under Confederation, will depend on the meaning to be attached to the phrase "seaboard of British Columbia;" and the sooner that meaning is clearly understood the better. What is known in brief as the "San Juan difficulty," shows the danger of loose definitions, and warns us not to be satisfied with anything short of a perfect understanding on this vitally important matter. Dr. Tolmie then proposed the following:

Resolved—That although we are, on the whole, well satisfied with the liberal spirit evinced in the Terms of Confederation, as proposed by the Dominion Government, and while we highly appreciate the advantages of our forming part of the British nation to extend from ocean to ocean, it is, in the opinion of this meeting, most desirable, in order to permanently settle so important a question; that the location of the terminus of the Canadian Trans-Continental Railway, on the seaboard of British Columbia—to be considered in this connexion as the southeastern coast of Vancouver Island—should be soon and finally determined upon.

That the well sheltered harbor of Esquimalt, easily accessible as it is at all seasons by day or night, with its unsurpassed anchorage, proximity to the ocean as well as to the extensive and valuable coalfields of Vancouver Island, and also as being the station for Her Majesty's fleet in the North Pacific, has pre-eminent and indisputable superiority over any other point in the Colony, as the site for the Western Terminus of the British North American Trans-Continental Railway, and that railway being an Imperial as well as a Colonial necessity, Esquimalt should unquestionably and definitely be fixed upon as the terminus of this great undertaking.

That our representatives in the Legislative Council be instructed to urge the adoption of the view of this meeting as part of the Terms of Confederation.

After reading the resolution, the Doctor added that, as an individual, it was not his wish to retard Confederation.

Mr. J. G. Norris rose to second the resolution, and said that two short years ago it was almost dangerous to acknowledge yourself a Confederate; and I remember on my arrival from Yale, as one of the Delegates, being requested by a friend to come across to Professor Piper's store. When I got there I found, to my surprise, myself and my hon. friend, Mr. DeCosmos, caricatured in sugar—and very well done it was. My friend wore his hat so jauntingly that I was proud of my companion and myself being caricatured in so good a cause. The scene changes, and there appears another caricature in Piper's window, composed of four characters, two of whom were the most determined opponents of this great measure. One of the four was a school-master, named Musgrave, and he so cleverly performed his duties that in a short time he converted the dunces into very good scholars. The end of it was that the boys Helmcken and Trutch were selected to proceed to Ottawa to be thoroughly examined in their education. The examination went off well; the Doctor was rewarded; but Trutch's capabilities being greater than the Doctor's, or it may be that the school-master had more confidence in him, he was sent to London on a secret mission; and I have no doubt he fulfilled his mission well. Well, I respect and honor them for what they have done; but it is not because they have fulfilled their mission to their own satisfaction that we are prohibited from taking action on this (to us) momentous occasion. Mr. Mayor, some people are foolish enough to say that if you move in this matter you will endanger Confederation and do incalculable injury to the cause. Sir, I deny this, most emphatically, and no one that hears me in this large assembly to-night, will accuse us of such a course. But, sir, I think I know something of the clever men at the head of the Government of Canada, and I could not believe for one minute that for one hundred miles of railway, for which we now contend, through one of the best coal fields in the Dominion, (from Victoria and Esquimalt, the only first-class harbor in the British Possessions, on the Pacific), the Dominion Government will hesitate in granting us what we ask. Now, Mr. Chairman and gentlemen, may I ask you, do the Dominion want us to join them with our own free will and accord, prepared as far as human skill can, to assist them faithfully? or does she want us to be a drag on her? Now, sir, there are people who contend that this is merely a Dominion and British Columbian question. Sir, I deny that statement, in the strongest language. It is not only a Dominion and British Columbian question, but an Imperial one of the greatest magnitude. Look at the death struggle at present devastating the fields and happy homes of millions of people in Europe by the war. Now, sir, fancy the enormous commerce of England being interfered with by such a misfortune; fancy the postal arrangements of England being destroyed; fancy a mutiny in India, as we have had before, and may have again. No, sir, the monetary interests of England would suffer to the tune of over two hundred millions sterling per annum; our relief's in India would be interfered with to such an extent that our troops might be destroyed before assistance could reach them. Who can now say it is not an Imperial question. But, Sir, fancy the Great Eastern with her thousand troops, from England to Halifax, the steam horse ready to transmit them to Esquimalt, and a twin sister of the Great Eastern, with steam up, ready for sea. What need England care for the world if she can land any amount of troops in India, China or Australia, and all through British North America. I feel, gentlemen, I have said enough to convince you that it is the interest of England to assist, materially, this great undertaking, and it is the interest of the Dominion that we should join them perfectly contented, so as to produce the greatest amount of happiness, prosperity and contentment amongst the people.

Several other gentlemen spoke at some length, on the question.

It was moved, That a committee of three be appointed to present the views of this meeting to the members elected to the Council.

The Chair appointed Dr. Tolmie, J. P. Davies and J. Fell.

On motion of Mr. DeCosmos, vote of thanks was tendered the Chairman, and the meeting dissolved.

Cariboo Mining Summary.

[From the Sentinel, Oct. 22.]

WILLIAM CREEK.

The Mountain co. are building a dump-house for the shaft in the back part of their ground, where there is a channel which they purpose working during the winter. The channel is a few hundred feet from the creek, and was partly prospected last winter. The Downie co. are preparing to drift during the winter, and have put up a large and substantial dump-house, strong enough to support any caving of the bank. They purpose working the ground in the rear of the Bradley-Nicholson claim, where the blue lead of the creek and the back channel above referred to form a junction. A shaft is being put down in the Jenny Lind claim, on the right hill below the sawmill, for the purpose of working a stratum of top-gravel during the winter. The receipts from the Forward groundand from theBedrockFlume continue to give satisfaction. A few of the hydraulic companies have been working during the week. The Cornish co. cleaned up 62 oz last week from a piece of ground below that worked during the summer. The Black Jack co. have run off a good deal of ground this week, but are troubled with slides. The Cariboo co. washed up 112 oz for the week ending Monday last. A company have commenced work in the lower Cariboo shaft. Another new company, named the Wind-up co., have commenced work in an old shaft in the hill, a little below the Never-Sweat, tunnel for the purpose of driving to a small channel or gutter known to lie in the hill. The New Moffatt co. are working on high rock on the right of the creek, but intend to go into the deep ground as soon as they can get drainage. The Ballarat co. washed up 116 oz. for the week. The Conklin co. report wages for the week. The Summer co. have commenced washing. The Forest Rose co., have finished repairs, commenced putting out from the face again last week, and got 103 oz. There is no change to notice in the operations of the other companies working in the creek except that the Caledonia co. have stopped to repair pumps.

STOUT GULCH.

The Mucho Oro co. washed up 35½ oz for the week. From the Taffvale claim the receipts were lighter than usual, being 23 oz. The Jenkins, Coombs, Alturas and High-Low-Jack co.'s. are working.

CONKLIN GULCH.

The White Pine co. continue getting pay and took out 30 oz. for the week. The Felix co., who are working a small force, washed up 10 oz.

LOWHEE CREEK.

The Victoria co. were running a drain during the week. The Russell-Robertson co. continue on pay, frequently as high as 10 oz to the set. Tunneling for the quartz ledge in the Brown claim goes on. The Brown co. are running a small drift to cut off the hill water, and washed up 13 oz. for the week.

KEITHLEY CREEK.

The Gold Flat co. are sinking a dump hole and putting up a pump to enable them to work during the winter. Young & co. are making from $20 to $25 per day to the hand. The Ossian co. have taken up a portion of the ground formerly held by the Stonewall co., and have commenced running a tunnel.

RICH DISCOVERIES ON GERMANSEN CREEK.

A gentleman in this city received the following letter yesterday morning by the steamer Enterprise from Omineca which gives good news with regard to the mines in that section of the Colony. The news can be relied on, as the writer is well known throughout the Colony.

STEWART-LAKE, Oct. 12th, 1870.

Mr. A. S. Bates, Deep Creek,

DEAR SIR:—I arrived here to-day at the Hudson Bay Company's house, and met William Welch who was just in from Germansen creek. He gives me the very best kind of account of the diggings. I am very lucky to have met him, as he is going back to the creek with a load of goods which he has bought from the Company. There are no goods on Germansen creek, he says. I asked him how the boys were getting along? These are the words he told me: James May and Duncan McMartin were taking out from twenty-five to fifty ounces per day, and Black Jack was taking out a yeast powder box full per day, all of which he says is true. Mr. Bates, I think I have struck it this time. We have had a very good trip so far from Quesnel, and the animals stood it very well.

Mr. Ogden and son died a few days before I arrived here and Mr. Moffat left for Quesnel the morning I arrived so I did not see him.

No more at present, give my best respects to all the boys, and tell Sandy McQueen that I think this is the best break I ever made.

Respectfully yours

WILLIAM McINTOSH.

MAINLAND ITEMS.—From a gentleman who arrived yesterday morning on the Enterprise, from the Mainland, we learn the following items: When he left William creek news had just been received that the Spruce claim on Lighting creek, had struck 7 oz. and $1, at the bottom of a hole. Finding that they were going too high they are running up stream to strike bed-rock. Sixteen hundred dollars was refused for an interest in the claim. Snow fell to the depth of 14 inches, on the 24th inst., on Bald Mountain. An express is expected about the 31st October, at the mouth of Quesnel, from Germansen creek. Messrs. C. K. Wright, P. C. Dunlevy and J. Callbraith left Quesnell on the 17th inst., forGermansen creek, with a large assortment of provisions.

ANCHORED.—On Saturday night the steamer Enterprise anchored between James' and Sydney Islands. In raising the anchor on Sunday morning, it caught on the telegraph cable, which was raised to the surface of the water. Some damage was done to the cable.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—The barkentine C L. Taylor, Capt. Lane, arrived yesterday morning, 19 days from San Francisco with a full cargo of merchandise and the manchinery belonging to Messrs. Kurtz & Lane. She is consigned to Messrs. Millard & Beedy. The Captain reports having experienced very rought weather the entire trip and head winds.

BURRARD INLET.—The following vessels are loading at Moody & Co.'s mill, Burrard Inlet. The Alaska, Aymar, Deleware and Corsair. At the Hastings mills there are two vessels loading, the JoachinChristain and Pochahontas. The steamer Emma left the Inlet for Chemainus last Monday to tow spars for Mr. J. Rogers to the Inlet.

RETURNING.—A large number of miners who were on their way back from Omineca, have gone back to Germansen Creek since they heard of the new strikes. A great deal of confidence is placed in these new mines by miners and traders, and it is expected that there will be a rush there, when the season opens up.

SAANICH PLOWING MATCH.—In connection with the above match, Mr. H. Simpson, of the Half-way House, has great pleasure in announcing to his friends and patrons that he has arranged with Mr. Frank Richards to bring the celebrated minstrel troupe and band to perform on the evening of the 11th November.

THE CARIBOO ELECTION.—We learn from a gentleman who arrived from Cariboo on the Enterprise, yesterday morning, that Dr. Carrall or Walkem's chances of being elected to represent the Cariboo District are very slight against Mr. C. Booth, if he will stand. It is very likely that he will come out.

A SINGULAR COINCIDENCE.—On Saturday evening a model of a ship which was made out of part of the rudder of the shipOrpheus, which was precked off the coast of New Zealand, and by a singular coincidence the model was won by Mr. Samuel Sea who helped to make the rudder of the Orpheus.

REMANDED.—John McTeigh pleaded guilty on Saturday morning in the Police Court, to the charge of larceny preferred against him. The magistrate took a merciful view of the case and released him upon his own recognizance with instructions to appear for sentence in one month.

THE MEADOWS MACHINERY.—Among the imports per C. L. Taylor from San Francisco is the machinery belonging to the Kurtz & Lane Mining Company at Cariboo. It will be shipped immediately to Cariboo, and work commenced on the Meadows as soon as possible.

REPAIRING.—The steamer Lillooet has been hauled on the ways near Herring's, New Westminster for repairs. She will be off in a few days and ready for the spring trade which is expected to be large on account of the rich strikes on Germansen Creek.

LAID OVER.—A notice appears in the Government Gazette of Saturday from the Gold Commissioner of Cariboo, stating that all claims will be laid over after the 1st of November until the 26th of May, 1871.

LOSS OF THE CAPTAIN.—The verdict of the Naval Committee of Enquirey into the loss of the iron-clad Captain, exonerates everybody connected with her construction and management.

THE LOTTERY.—The drawing of prizes in the Mercantile Library Lottery, will take place to-day. All the winning numbers will be known this evening, unless the telegraph line is down.

FROM THE MAINLAND.—The steamer Enterprise, Capt. Swanson, arrived at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, with about 20 passengers, a Cariboo mail and express, and $35,000 in treasure.

SUPPLEMENT.—In order to lay before our readers a greater amount of reading matter, We publish a supplement this morning with the paper.

DOWN AGAIN.—Yesterday, there was a break in the cable, between James and Sydney Islands, consequently, there was no telegraphic news last night.

DR. HELMCKEN will hold aPublic Meeting some evening during this week, at the St. Nicholas Hall.

FROM PORTLAND.—The steamer California left Portland on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock for Puget Sound and Victoria.

An official report of the capitulation of Schlestadt has been received by the Minister of the Interior.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Advice from Berlin yesterday state that the capitulation of Bazaine with the army at Metz was in conformity with an agreement arrived at with the King of Prussia, and indicate a speedy peace.

Heavy rifle firing was heard to-day near Paris, the sound coming from the defences between Lavilette and Mount Martre.

The Germans who occupied Vestvule have left for Groy-sur-Soane. This movement down the valley of the Lorne is believed to be the first step of an advance on Lyons.

TOURS, Oct. 28.—The following official dispatch has just been received and made public: Bourges, Oct. 28.—A telegram from Basle announces that the Prussians have suffered a defeat between Mouzelard and Besancon. They fled in disorder, taking with them 53 wagons filled with wounded and leaving 1200 dead on the field. Two hundred of them crossed the frontier into Swiss territory. They were disarmed and proceeded to Possen.

It is reported here that England desires a meeting of the European Congress to arrange peace.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—The news of the surrender of Metz and Bazaine's army numbering 85,000 men of all arms and between 15,000 and 20,000 disabled troops, is confirmed today. In government circles and among imperialis it is regarded as favorable to the negotiations now going on at Versailles for an armistice. There negotiations on their original basis did not involve any reference to Metz, the army of Bazaine being considered out of the question. Its points, on the best authority, are as follows: First, that the principle of 'statu quo ante bellum' is to govern all arrangements, looking to the possible resumption of arms after the armistic. Second, That both belligerents are to be allowed to hold undisturbed their actual positions at the time of singing the stipulations. Third, that the city of Paris is to be allowed to receive daily one day's supply of provisions. Forth, all latitude to be given throughout the country to proceed with the election of members of the constitutional assembly.

It is now reported that Austria has resumed her activity in support of the English negotiations and that she is warmly backed by the Italian Government.

Intelligence has just reached the Foreign Office that the German authorities at Versailles have consented, upon a formal demand to that effect couched in diplomatic but decided language from the Governments of England and Prussia, to grant Theirs a safe conduct through the German lines into Paris. It is expected that the interview between Theirs and Trochu will decide the fate of the negotiations for an armistice.

MADRID, Oct 28 via TOURS 29.—It is reported that the Grand Powers have returned answers favorable to the candidacy of Aosta.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—Shocks of an earthquake were felt last week simultaneously with the appearance of a brilliant aurora.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—A special at Bologne sends word that a few of the American volunteers who arrived at Brest on the steamer Ville de Paris, have enlisted in the 98th regiment, stationed in that city, but the majority joined the franc-tireurs, and were ordered at once to Tours. They were coldly received by the officials at Brest, but most enthusiastically along the road to Tours.

AMIENS, Oct. 28, via TOURS, 29.—The Prussians were defeated at Ferriers this morning by troops of the line, mobiles and a small force of artillery.

The village of Bouvisse has been burned by the Prussians. French patrolmen still hold the railroad from this place to Rouen. Communication between the two cities is perfect, despite frequent attemps by the enemy to destroy it.

A dispatch just received from Nogent le Roution says: the Prussians have evacuated Sourville, in the Department of Eure et Loire near Charrtes, ofter an engagement with the mobiles and volunteers, in which the French were successful. Some houses were burned from the artillery fire and the enemy were fairly driven from the field with the loss of one gun.

The Times of this morning has a telegram describing the scenes around Metz at the time of surrender.

A frightful storm has raged for several days all over the north of France and the entire country was under water and every one literally drowned out. The telegraph lines were prostrated in all directions.

The French press is trying to persuade the people that there is extreme suffering in Prussia on account of the war.

Late advices from Algiers report that the rebellion has been suppressed and tranquility reigns among the population.

Advices from various Departments confirm the reports of the retreat of the Prussians.

Garibaldi is still acting on the offensive.

TOURS, Oct. 29.—Another ballon from Paris descended within the French lines near Strasboarg the day before yesterday.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Yesterday the Prussians made an attempt to cut the line of communication between Amiens and Rouen, but were beaten off without accomplishing their object.

ROUEN, Oct. 28.—Prefect of the Department has telegraphed to the Ministry at Tours to-day that the enemy has left Chateau Neuf, near Chartres.

BREMEN, Oct. 29.—Late yesterday evening the local authorities were notified by parties in Belgium that 12 French war ship had just left Dunkirk, going north. The mouths of rivers and coasts of the North and Baltic Seas will immediately be placed in a state of defense.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Information from official sources has been received by cable today to the effect that Count Von Bismarck does not consider Lord Granville's note as a proposition for an armistice. He thinks the proposition should come from France.

Thier will probably be permitted to go to Versailles, but there is uncertainty about his being permitted to enter Paris.

Her Majesty's, Government have not yet received a reply to their suggestions from Prussia.

For 24 years I suffered with neuralgia on the brain, which baffled the skill of three first-class American physicians. Latterly bronchitis attacked my right lung, and my eyes became awfully inflamed. Despairing of ever being cured I placed myself as a last resort in the hands of Dr. Ching Fun, and after five months treatment I am a well man and feel that I cannot sound the eminent Chinese gentleman's praises too loudly, so that all my countrymen similarly affected may visit him and find relief.
